Will Thomas

Managing Director, DC

Executive Biography

Will Thomas is the DC Managing Director for Conduit Government Relations. Prior to joining Conduit, Will spent over a decade working at the intersection of food insecurity, health, and LGBTQ issues, achieving advocacy wins and effecting policy changes at the local, state, and Federal levels at organizations such as Quantified Ventures, Food & Friends, Hunger Free America, AARP Foundation, and Meals on Wheels America. Will has also worked as a development and evaluation consultant for clients such as Black Film Archive, the Jackson Medical Mall Foundation, and the National Council on Aging.

Will has a Masters of Public Health from the Milken Institute School of Public Health at George Washington University, a Masters degree in Agricultural Economics from Auburn University, and a Bachelors degree in Economics and Finance from The University of Alabama. Currently, Will serves on the Executive Committee of the University of Alabama National Alumni Association, and is a member of St. Thomas's Episcopal Parish in Washington, D.C. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Queer Food Foundation and on the Diocesan Council of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington.

Will recently earned his Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction certification, is working on his yin and restorative yoga teacher trainings, and in his free time, you can probably find him at SoulCycle or E St Cinema.
